JIM ALLEN is busier than a cargo of monkeys. One week he ran a Church Convention, last week he bossed the Elks Fair, and this week he has the Colored Methodist Conference on hand. After all, it takes a newspaperman to run things right.

AN authority on racing says that "it doesn't pay to back any old plug." It seems though that an old plug would be just the thing if you choose to back 'er. —Lexington Herald.

And yet we marvel at the increase of crime—in Lexington. Why doesn't GEORGE MUR turn his Fire Department loose? Or DICK ARNSPAGER call out the "Rubes?"

THE Mayor of Chicago having refused to allow the notorious EMMA GOLDMAN to deliver her lecture on Anarchy in that city, THE LEDGER respectfully invites the lady to Maysville. If she will kindly consent to come, we'll have a proper platform erected and a large audience present on the spot where DICK COLEMAN made his last appearance.

THE results of the pernicious legislation at Frankfort against "corporations" and "capital" are being manifested daily to people who want to see Kentucky advance with her sister states. The new Tobacco Factory in this city has been incorporated in West Virginia, because her laws are such as to protect "corporations" and "capital," while the laws of Kentucky, as now framed, seek to destroy and to drive out both. Thus Kentucky is the loser while West Virginia is the gainer; and, mark it, if there is not a quick change in policy in this state, ten years will see West Virginia as far ahead of Kentucky as is the state of Ohio today!

BRAIN-FOOD NONSENSE.

Another ridiculous food fad has been branded by the most competent authorities. They have dispelled the silly notion that one kind of food is needed for brain, another for muscles, and still another for bones. A correct diet will not only nourish a particular part of the body, but it will maintain every other part. Yet, however good your food may be, its nutriment is destroyed by indigestion or dyspepsia. You must prepare for their appearance or prevent their coming by taking regular doses of Green's August Flower, the favorite medicine of the healthy millions. A few doses aid indigestion, stimulates the liver to healthy action, purifies the blood, and makes you feel buoyant and vigorous. You can get Dr. C. G. Green's reliable remedies at J. Jas. Wood & Son's, 407 Green's Special Almanac.

Eczema for Forty Years.

The Unqualified Statement of a Well Known Attorney, St. Ignace, Mich.

Some of the cures made by Dr. A. W. Chase's Ointment of stubborn and long continued eczema and skin diseases are causing much comment. People are beginning to realize that this Ointment is a wonder worker with all kinds of skin trouble. Attorney James J. Brown, St. Ignace, Michigan, writes as follows:

Dr. A. W. Chase

Med. Co. Buffalo,

N. Y.—Gents:—I cannot refrain from expressing my acknowledgments for the relief I have felt from Dr. Chase's Ointment.

For 40 years I was afflicted with a skin disease which was located in one spot—on my leg. I have spent at a rough estimate five hundred dollars trying to effect a cure, and not until I applied this ointment did I get relief. You are strangers to me and this letter is prompted directly because I ought to say and I feel as though I ought to say it. That Chase's ointment has effected a complete cure of my affliction. Three boxes did the work on my leg. I was also suffering from itching piles and applied the ointment which gave the best of satisfaction by affording me rest at night and rapidly causing the disease to disappear. I have received such relief and comfort from the ointment that I cannot withhold expressing my gratitude. I was so long afflicted with the tortures of eczema. I feel now that I am cured, a word of recommendation is due from me. Yours truly,

JAMES J. BROWN.

BIG SENSATION.

The Defense in the Powers Case Attempt to Swear Judge Cantrill Off the Bench.

Georgetown, Ky., Oct. 8.—The one topic of discussion here Monday night was "What will be the outcome of the attempt of the attorneys of Caleb Powers to swear Judge James E. Cantrill off the bench?"

When court opened Monday morning there was an argument between the opposing attorneys as to whether the Powers case stands for trial at this term of court. The defense made the motion that the lodging of the appellate court's mandate for re-trial in the office of the Scott county circuit court clerk on July 23 did not fulfill the legal requirements of the criminal code, as the mandate could only be filed in open court and the case set for trial only after ten days' notice to the defense. After some tilting between the attorneys, Judge Cantrill ordered the mandate simply spread on the records.

At this point the defense sprang a sensation by filing an affidavit to require Judge Cantrill to vacate the bench. The judge thereupon adjourned court until Tuesday.

LUNGS CONGESTED.

Boralma is Too Sick to Meet The Abbot in the Proposed $30,000 Race at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 8.—It was announced at a meeting Monday of the Kentucky Trotting association directors that Boralma was too sick to meet The Abbot in the proposed $30,000 race Wednesday. He has congestion of the lungs. The directors then attempted to have Cresceus substituted and offered $5,000. Geers was willing, but Ketcham declined on the ground that Cresceus had all the work ahead of him that he could undertake. Geers, for Scannell, then consented to have The Abbot go against the world's record Wednesday. Great crowds have arrived for the ten days meeting which opens with the $16,000 futurity for three-year-olds Wednesday.

The animal chased the fox into a hole and dislodged the earth at the opening so that it could not get out. The other day the children of F. P. Cary heard what they thought the whining of a wild animal underground. Search was made, and Halstead's hound was unearthed. Although imprisoned about 15 days the dog tottered off to its master's home, and will live.

TIME IS EXTENDED.

Brigands Allow Another Month in Which to Pay the Ransom For Miss Stone.

NEARLY HALF THE AMOUNT RAISED.

Consul Dickenson Intends to Follow Up the Abductors and Deposit a Part of the Money Demanded.

State Department at Washington Has Agreed to Take Full Charge of Delivery of the Ransom to the Bandits.

Boston, Oct. 8.—Nearly half the money needed to ransom Miss Eller M. Stone, the missionary, from the Bulgarian brigands has been placed in the hands of Messrs. Kidder, Peabody & Co. The exact figures at midnight Monday night were $45,343 cash and $7,500 in pledges. Of this amount the firm Monday afternoon sent $35,000 to the state department to be forwarded to its consular agents at the place where it can be used most expeditiously. Members of the firm, when informed of the cablegram from London to the effect that Vienna advises indicated that there would be a month's extension of time in which to pay the ransom, said that the forwarding of money would not be delayed in the least. During the afternoon the officials of the American board, in charge of congregation missions, met informally. Nothing was talked of except Miss Stone and the matter of the ransom. The officials personally contributed to the ransom. But, as officials, they took the position they have taken all along, that it should be inadvisable for them, as a mission board, to pay a ransom, this, for the reason that it would be putting a premium on brigandage that must in the end make missionary work in wild and rough countries more difficult and possibly impracticable.

Collections Will Continue.

After this meeting, it was officially given out that the state department at Washington has agreed to take full charge of the delivery of the ransom to the brigands. If news comes that Miss Stone still lives, or until the news of her death is received, collections for the ransom will continue to be made.

London, Oct. 8.—"It is reported from Sofia," says a dispatch from Vienna to the Daily Express, "that United States Consul Dickenson and an envoy of a missionary society arrived there Saturday, intending to follow up Miss Stone, the abducted missionary, and to deposit a portion of the ransom. The brigands have extended the time for payment one month."

London, Oct. 8.—The Daily Telegraph publishes the following dispatch from Vienna: "Mr. Dickenson and the director of the American mission had a long audience with Prince Ferdinand at Sofia. There is no doubt that Miss Stone was abducted under orders from the Macedonian committee."

The procession passed through the downtown streets. Tuesday night the Veiled Prophet will head the famous parade and will preside at the ball at the Merchants' exchange.
